Assignment

- Late October onwards to begin working on assignment.
- Students will spend time researching on the computers and in the library.
- Pupils have a booklet to help them complete the assignment.

Assignments due in December.

Support from Teacher

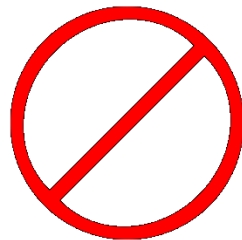

- Your teacher can help you find suitable sources.
- Pupils will receive feedback regularly.
- Pupils can hand in work at any time and receive extra feedback.
- Lunch time and after school study time is available.
- Miss Fyfe's classroom is always available. Just ask!

Your Teacher Cannot

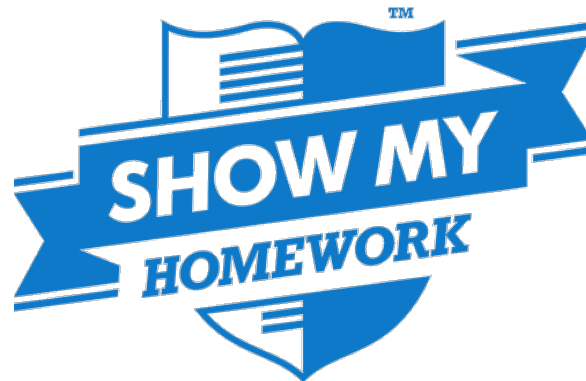

- Give detailed feedback.
- Give detailed directions on how to use specific content to complete the assignment.
- “Mark” or give a grade on any drafts of work.

Your teacher will refuse to give any further feedback on an assignment if they feel they have given a large amount of support already.

You Can

- Encourage your child to work on the assignment and do reading at home.
- Help your child access any books or resources they may need. (Ordering from the library, allowing internet time.)
- Encourage your child to catch up on any missed work if they have been absent.

Homework

- Pupils should regularly go over their notes and revise that weeks work at home.
- Pupils should catch up on missed work at home or attend a catch up/revision session.
- Any homework tasks will be displayed on Show My Homework.
- Upcoming assessments will be displayed in the assessment calendar.

Revision/Catch Up Sessions

- 1 lunch time a week where Miss Fyfe is available to help pupils to catch up with missed work or go over anything that needs clarifying.
- After school revision sessions will also take place. Day TBC.
- Miss Fyfe's class room is available at any break or lunch time for studying/quiet upon request.

Support Available for Pupils
